More Than 100 Homes Added To Torrance

More than a hundred more homes were added to Torrance's continuing building boom this week as John R. Patrick, city building inspector, issued permits to two large scale home builders and several individuals.

Truman Enterprises, Inc., took out permits for 57 houses with attached garages with a total value of $355,700 to be built on 179th street and Regina avenue, east of Hawthorne avenue.

Property Management of Gardena, obtained permits for 33 houses and six garages, valued at $217,900 to be built in the 16400 and 16500 blocks of Haas and Arlington avenues.

The Semess Corporation of 3211 Newton street, Waveria, obtained permits to build 16 homes and six garages valued at $103,200 in the 3200 block of Winlock road.

Individual permits were issued for other building including $10,000 five room stucco residence with attached garage at 313 Via Linda Vista, built by the owner, Robert J. Presley, 1085 Monterey, Hermosa Beach.

A $10,600 residence and attached garage at 242 Pasco de las Delicias, built for C. R. McClung by Joseph S. Lamb of Lomita.

A $10,600 six room concrete block residence and attached garage at 529 La Selva avenue, built by the owner, Eugene Byrd, 630 Calle de Arboles.

A $9400 five room stucco residence and attached garage at 1628 Juniper avenue, built by the owner, Arthur J. Roberts, 616 East Carson street.

A $150 flower and vegetable stand at 3155 Pacific Coast Highway, built by the owner, Kay Ishigashi, 2058 262nd street, Lomita.

A $500 garage at 812 Acacia

Perry Connett Opens Realty Office Here

Perry Connett, formerly with Bob Haggard at 1409 Marcelina avenue, has opened his own real estate and insurance office at 1871 Carson street.

His new office has four rooms and is decorated in knotty pine throughout and has walnut furniture.

Connett is a director and treasurer of the Torrance-Lomita Realty Board.

Local Soldier Leads Squad in Arctic Exercises

Cpl. William Kuithe, 22, son of Mrs. Esther Kuithe, 1736 Gramercy avenue, is currently participating in "Exercise Sweetbriar," the first joint United States-Canadian arctic maneuver to be held in Alaska and Canada.

Cpl. Kuithe, who is a graduate of the Army Arctic Indocination School, Big Delta, Alaska, is presently serving as squad leader in Headquarters Company, 1st Battalion, 4th Infantry Regiment, which has been undergoing extensive training and testing of arctic equipment in Alaska since June 1949.

Exercise Sweetbriar is a controlled training exercise under arctic conditions, being conducted jointly by United States and Canadian Forces in the Yukon Territory and in Alaska during January and February 1950.

avenue, built by the owner, F. K. Chutter.

A $6700 four room frame residence and attached garage at 2245 West 231st street, built by the owner, J. H. Ber Bejanson, 2233 West 231st street.
